Description of Work:

Team mentor for the students (mainly juniors/seniors in high school) participating in the SEAP Plus program. This is an alternate program held for the students that applied for a SEAP (Science and Engineering Apprenticeship Program) internship with the Navy. STEM Summer program where participants build and program an autonomous watercraft using PVC pipe as the construction medium and an Arduino microcontroller to program it. Assisted teams with the programming/coding side of the boat, since that was where I excelled when I participated the previous year.
